When I Read to You

Reading to your child can be a special time to spend together. Here are tips for reading out loud to a child:

- ☐ Read to your child every day.
- ☐ Read about things your child is interested in and enjoys.
- ☐ Read at the same pace that you talk.
- ☐ Read with expression. Give different characters different voices. Change your voice to match how the character in the book feels.
- ☐ Reread books your child enjoys.
- ☐ Explain some words that your child may not understand.
- ☐ Read different types of things like poems, books that tell a story, and informational books (for example, factual books about volcanoes, weather, or animals).
- ☐ Read books that are too difficult for your child to read on his/her own.

When You Read to Me

Listening to your child read out loud can help him/her read words correctly and quickly. Here are tips for when your child reads out loud to you.

Select books that are:

- ☐ Interesting to your child.
 - Not too easy or too hard.
 - Linked to your child's experiences or concerns.
 - Recommended by your child's teacher.
- ☐ Have your child point to the words while reading.
- ☐ When your child makes a mistake, reread the sentence with the mistake and ask, "Does that make sense?"
- ☐ When your child cannot read a word, use these tips in this order until he/she reads the word:
 - Say each sound in this word and then put the sounds together.
 - What is the first sound? Next sound? Next sound? Can you put the sounds together to read the word?
 - Let's say each sound together and then read the word.
 - I'll say each sound in the word and then read it. Then you try.
 - This word is _____. What is this word? Read this sentence again.
