Now, let's watch a video showing us what this looks like at home. Review key points before or after the video. Answer family questions about the video.

4.2 Does That Make Sense? (2:57)

Key Points About the Video

- Mom reminds her son that everyone makes mistakes and that she will help him fix any mistakes.
- Mom asks her son to reread the word he misread (eat) correctly and then read the whole sentence again for another opportunity to practice.
- Mom makes sure that what her son read makes sense to him by ensuring that he reads each word correctly and by asking him questions about what he read.

Let's review the Family Activity Books to Share, a list of suggested books that your child may be able to read to you with your help. Add appropriate books that families can borrow from your classroom library, the school library, the public library, or any other appropriate source.

Answer questions about the Family Activity.

Take the Family Activity home and have fun helping your child monitor his or her understanding and correct errors. As you read with your child, remember to be patient, as reading is a skill that takes a lot of practice. Tell your child how proud you are that he or she is practicing reading!
